

Select Michigan Peaches

Did You Know?

Peaches are an important part of Michigan's agricultural economy. Michigan ranks sixth in the nation for peach production. Over 430 fruit raising farms form the Michigan peach industry which contributes over $11 million to the state's economy.

Peaches are rich in potassium, a vital element for both healthy blood and bones.

The Michigan Peach Sponsors is a growers group dedicated primarily to research. For delicious recipes and to learn more about Michigan Peaches visit: www.michiganpeaches.org.

Select Michigan-grown peaches. They're good for you, our growers and the economy.

